JUN APR 1963

Honorable John A. McCone
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia

Dear Mr. McCone:

I always welcome the opportunity to give recognition to individuals whose efforts substantially benefit the National Security Agency. My Legal Advisor has called my attention to the valuable assistance which your General Counsel and Legislative Counsel have provided this Agency.

This assistance has included vital support on legislation in which the National Security Agency had a primary interest as well as timely and authoritative advice on legal problems involving broad and complex issues which affect the national intelligence community.

Please convey my appreciation to Mr. Lawrence R. Houston, , and members of their staffs.

Sincerely,

GORDON A. BLAKE
Lieutenant General, USAF
Director
